

An open challenge to my fellow Californians:

Here in California, we have already witnessed unprecedented levels of voter disenfranchisement and possibly voter fraud in primaries across the country. Do NOT let your vote be stolen from you by bureaucratic incompetence and your own unwitting misinformation.

I HEREBY CHALLENGE YOU to get up off your ass and go cast your vote for Bernie Sanders A.S.A.P. What the hell are you waiting for?

EARLY VOTING HAS ALREADY BEGUN IN CALIFORNIA!!!

Please realize that you can go to your county registrar's office and vote for Bernie Sanders for President right now! I have already voted for Bernie Sanders and I hereby challenge you to do the same. Stop talking about supporting Bernie Sanders and go vote for him. DO IT NOW!

I hereby challenge every member of the media and the entertainment industry to exercise their right to vote early and then use their skills and connections to help get the word out to the general public. Go to your county registrar's office to vote and then use your media and celebrity status to help make voting early "the thing to do." I challenge you to document your actions with photos and video and share it on social media.

By voting early at your county registrar's office you can make sure that you receive the proper ballot and are not victimized by the confusion, errors and mistakes that have already occurred across the country. This election is too important to allow your vote to be stolen from you.

If you wait and end up having difficulty at the polls on election day, then you have no one to blame but yourself. If you have any questions, please visit the webpage below. If you still have any questions, call me directly.
